

Workshop on
“Gender, Family & Labor Markets: Taiwan Perspectives”
Agenda

Chair: Chin-fen Chang (Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica)

Discussant: Paula England (Department of Sociology, Stanford University)

Date: 14 October, 2010 (Thursday), 1:20-5:30 pm

Venue: Room 802, Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica

Time	Schedule
1:00-1:20 pm	Registration
1:20-1:30 pm	Opening remarks Michael H. H. Hsiao (Director of Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica)
Session I
1:30-2:15 pm	Decomposing the Stability of Male Marriage Premium in Taiwan Wan-chi Chen (Department of Sociology, National Taipei University)
2:15-3:00 pm	Gender Differences in Job Mobility Patterns in Taiwan: An Event History Analysis Fengbin Chang (Department of Sociology, National Chengchi University)
3:00-3:30 pm	Break
Session II
3:30-4:15 pm	Family Survival Strategies and Conjugal Power in Taiwanese Small Family Business Yu-Hsia Lu (Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica)
4:15-5:00 pm	The Heterogeneity of Attitudes toward Gender Role and Patriarchy among Four East Asian Societies Yu-Hua Chen (Department of Bio-Industry Communication and Development, National Taiwan University) Chin-fen Chang (Institute of Sociology, Academia Sinica)
5:00-5:30 pm	General discussion
