

NOV.15 (Friday)
9:00-9:20	Opening speech
Theme I: Measuring Networks
9:20-10:00	Martin Everett Centrality and networks with negative ties
10:00-10:40	Kun-Lin Kuo Nonparametric inference for network statistics
10:40-11:00	Coffee Break
Theme II: Local and Global Network Structures
11:00-11:40	Philippa Pattison Modelling network structure
11:40-12:20	Chen-Hsiang Yeang Recurrent structural motifs reflect characteristics of distinct networks
12:20-14:00	Lunch Break
14:00-14:40	Michael McBride Network formation with limited observation
14:40-15:00	Yen-Sheng Chiang Local generosity and global Inequality: a behavioral experiment on how networks influence egalitarian sharing
15:00-15:20	Coffee Break
Theme III: Mobilization through Social Networks
15:20-16:00	Ee-Peng Lim Social media analytics: challenges, research, and applications
16:00-16:40	Shin-Kap Han To harness an outbreak: structural bases of mobilization for the March First Independence Movement

NOV.16 (Saturday)
Theme IV: Dynamic Network and Behavior
9:00-9:40	Christian Steglich Centrality and networks with negative ties
9:40-10:20	Chih-Yao Chang Social influence or friendship selection: dynamic networks and adolescent attitude and behavior dimensions
10:20-10:40	Coffee Break
Theme V: Social Media and Data Mining
10:40-11:20	Chen-Chao Tao Network opportunity: the hidden influence of absent ties
11:20-12:00	Sheng-Wei (Kuan-Ta) Chen Gender swapping and user behaviors in online social games
12:00-12:40	I-Hsien Ting Implementation of social search engine in Facebook
12:00-14:00	Lunch Break
Theme VI: Ego-centric Networks: Boundary, Size and Perception
14:00-14:40	Bernie Hogan The useful social network? How visualization can empower users as well as researchers

14:40-15:20	Tasuku Igarashi Social networks in our mind: from Perception to motivation
15:20-15:40	Coffee Break
15:40-16:20	Yang-Chih Fu Drawing network boundaries from daily contacts: stability in implied and realized ego-alter ties
16:20-16:40	Tso-Jung Yen Alters as species: predicting personal network size from contact diaries with the alter accumulation curve
16:40-17:00	Closing speech